Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so?

The general health of women is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N.Y.

NOW FOR
G. FRANK TIMBERLAKE'S
Great Annual White Sale!

We have thrown our doors open to our Annual White Sale, the greatest of all White Sales. When the name Timberlake is associated with WHITE SALE it means a great showing and a great saving to the community. WHITE IS KING, it reigns supreme at this store just at present. We are now in our white garb. As has always been our custom, we will devote February, mainly to the selling of our new white goods and wash goods. Everything included in this important sale will be entirely new and bought specially for this sale. A special trip was made to New York in search of still greater white sale leaders. For the past week our entire force has been very busy engaged in receiving new goods and arranging them for the WHITE SALE. This sale means a great saving to the community. We have used every effort to make this sale eclipse any previous sale of its kind, and we are sure you will agree with us that our efforts have not been in vain when you have the pleasure of seeing for yourself. We want to tell you about a big lot of foreign Madras. Not an item in the lot that could be sold by any store in the usual way for less than 25c. Some a great deal better. Our mighty cash secured them at our own price so we have concluded to offer these during the WHITE SALE at choice 15c per yard.

We call special attention to our line of Ladies' Muslin Underwear. Children's Ready-made Dresses and Rompers, which we have recently added to our stock.

We are also making very interesting prices on drawn linen, lace scarves, shams, lace curtains, automobile veils, ready-made sheets, bolster cases, pillow cases, towels, white quilts, table damask, napkins, handkerchiefs, bleached cotton, percales, ginghams, madras, cambrics, linen, India linens, corsets and many other things too numerous to mention. Remember our white sale continues through the balance of this month, so it will be a pleasure for us to see you at our store every day. You will find us with a good clean store and a clean new stock full of real bargains.

G. FRANK TIMBERLAKE,

The man to be remembered when thinking of WHITE GOODS.

When Buying Building Materials

It is most important to consider the actual values gotten for the money spent.

We have devoted a great many years of careful study to this very point, and this work makes it possible for us to give better values and better service at the beginning of our 1911 season than ever before.

If you want Flooring, Siding, Ceiling, Mouldings, Sash, Doors, Blinds, Shingles, Laths, Lime, Portland Cement, Wall Plaster, Terra Cotta Pipe, Flue Lining, Nails, Glass, etc., it will pay you to inspect our stock and compare our prices, as you will find that our stock, from the cheapest to the highest grade, is selected with the one idea of giving our customers good values for every cent spent with us.

Mail orders and inquiries receive prompt and careful attention, and we furnish estimates promptly for Lumber, Mill Work and Builders' Supplies.

WESTMORELAND AND RICHMOND

Lived Nearly a Century—The Late Mrs. Elizabeth M. Brown—Many Interesting Items from G. W. B.

Hague, Va., March 8.

The March term of the Richmond County Court called together an enormous crowd on Monday last, so that horses were tied for several hours in the yards, the road for lack of hitching places nearer. The good order which has prevailed at Warsaw on such occasions for several years past was not so marked on this court-day. But whiskey was in some measure responsible, and the fine stallions on exhibition and the reckless manner in which they were driven tended to disorder. Not until some life or limb has been sacrificed will many citizens feel the necessity of reforming these evils.

Mr. McGinnis, at Piney Grove, is completing a new and commodious building on the site of the old storehouse at that place.

Mr. John Wright Belfield, near the same place, has made decided progress towards the erection of a dwelling house. When this is completed, if not before, he is likely to be in contemplation someone to keep it for him.

The addition to the storehouse at Machodoc, occupied by Coates Bros which was previously mentioned in this correspondence as intended, has now been built, and it makes a convenient and attractive improvement.

I learn from several sources that Dr. Hane, the very popular physician of upper Richmond county, has decided to remove to Lancaster. The exorable roads with which he has had to contend have worn him out, and to that of the five or six horses which the demands of his practice have compelled him to use.

Dr. M. M. Walker of Montross, who was for some months an invalid and great sufferer, and who in consequence withdrew from the practice of his profession, has of late greatly improved, and many friends believe he will soon become active again in his very successful waiting on the sick.

There was interred at Piney Grove on the 7th instant, the remains of Mrs. Jane Sison, who died suddenly on the previous day at the extreme age of 97 years. She retained in a remarkable degree her physical and mental faculties to the day, to the hour of her death. She was a "mother in Israel" in the number of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and to the sound of the faint car bells in the war of 1812-14.

On the 7th instant also, at Yocomo church was held a meeting amongst the dust of many of her kindred, Mrs. Elizabeth Madison Brown, relict of Dr. B. Frank Brown, having died on the Sunday previous. She was the sixth daughter and ninth child of Wm. F. Taylor, of King George, by his late wife, Mary Willis Turner, of Peckotone, Westmoreland county, and was born on Sept. 11, 1832. Beautiful in person to a remarkable degree, she was the emblem of the attractions of her mental and moral being, attractions which drew to her a host of admiring and loving friends. The weight of many efforts and many years neither effort nor age seemed to weigh upon her. Her face was the image of womanly beauty, nor marred by any signs of age. Her only daughter, Mrs. Mary Taylor, who lavished on her years of purest devotion and gentlest ministry, will deeply feel her loss.

Two barges, carrying 350 to 400 cords each, were loaded in Nom cord each within the past four or five days with poplar and pine wood. Several smaller vessels have also taken on all they could carry, making an increase of cash in the pockets of many dwellers contiguous to this stream, as well as an supplement to their household and other comforts.

At next regular term of court in Westmoreland (4th Monday in April) there is to be an unveiling of tablets commemorative of some of the history of the county, and the occasion, it is anticipated, will be graced by a number of invited guests, whose personal prominence and gift of oratory will make the day a red-letter one in our annals.

Mr. R. C. Mayo, a popular attorney, who has made his residence in Baltimore, where his health failed him some months ago, has been removed from a sanatorium in that city last week to his home near here. He has in this vicinity, where he was born and grew to manhood, many warm and admiring friends, who look forward earnestly and hopefully to his speedy recovery.

In the political contests now pending some candidates, directly or through their friends, seek to smooth the path to success by handling mud. It is commonly thrown at the opponent. The removal of mud is a good thing for our natural highways, but it had better remain undisturbed on the roads that lead to political office.

There is a word bejewelled with bright tears, the saddest words fond lips have ever spoken: "I love you."

A little word that breaks the chain of years, its utterance must ever bring emotion, the memories it crystals cannot die, its knock on every land, on every ocean—

Tis called, Good-bye!

A pair of Selachian gentlemen were here this a. m. prospecting for land in the Old Dominion from their home in Pennsylvania. Their names, good Lord! Jankansnowitz and Hardarnputz. Well, what's "what?" "Ugh" gave back their heads, let alone the small ideas of a Scribbler.

Notes from Hartwood.

Hartwood, Va., March 8.

"When the birds come back" Let the winter be ever so long, ever so inclement, ever so cold, there comes a day when we wake in the morning and find that spring has arrived. The birds are with their magic wand and lo, the green grass appears, the flowers bloom, the trees are in leaf and the birds come back. The dear little song sparrow, the blue bird, the robin and all the glad host of little friends whose flitting wings, joyous love-making and pretty nest-building add bliss to life are within our sight and again, the sweetest of their songs, Robert Browning in Italy longed to be in England when the spring came back.

If any of us wandering away from home yearn for the old familiar line highway and field with a longing that tugs at the heart, it is sure to be in the spring. They are the farmers' best allies and our homes would be robbed of a great charm if the birds were to stay away from us.

The day is dark and lowering. No travellers to be seen on the roads which had improved to such an extent that we could enjoy driving over them.

Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Ely, from Hampton, and Mrs. Geo. Jacobs visited at Hartwood recently.

Mrs. C. L. Kennedy is improving. Dr. Patton is in Richmond under a specialist's care. We are sorry to hear that he may be compelled to stay a month.

Mr. Geo. D. Monroe is convalescing rapidly.

Mrs. Jane Patton, one of our oldest inhabitants, is a little better. Mr. Timmons is suffering from cold.

Mr. R. Lee Dodd is improving. Mrs. Dimmick is much stronger. Her daughter, Mrs. Gasson, with her interesting family, contemplated moving to their new home in the near future. We are glad to welcome these cultured, refined people in our midst.

We are sorry to note the heavy losses of so many in this section from the recent failures in the Burg. Winter lingers in the lap of spring.

Oldest Clergyman in Country Dead.

Glens Falls, March 12.—Rev. Clever Barber, said to be the oldest clergyman in the country, died at his home in Fort Edward, aged 101. He was a member of the Troy Methodist conference for 73 years.

STAFFORD

Broke up Apron Party at Brooke—Officers Heavily Fined—A Pair of Names, Etc.

Stafford C. H., Va., March 10th, 1911.

Lincoln Roads, the young man who was sent to jail two months ago for trespassing on the property of the R. & P. E. R. Co. near Potomac run, will be discharged from the jail here Sunday, having served out his term.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Watson, of Brooke, paid the Court House a visit today on business.

The aftermath of the "apron party" held by our colored friends at the school house at Brooke, has reached a serious stage. It appears the teacher of the colored school there had about reached the limit of her term, and the patrons of the school concluded to have an apron party to raise funds so she could still continue to teach the young idea how to shoot.

A sumptuous supper was gotten up, and goodies, furnished to set, and all went as merry as a marriage bell, when also! The Saturday evening train arrived from Alexandria with its load of bottles and jugs. The colored ladies in charge promptly made for the doors and windows, particularly the two pistol shots were fired to celebrate their departure. And the apron party was no more, "done skipped out by the light of the moon. The next day warrants were sworn out and the cases were tried before Justice Payne with the following result: Ashty Shortie, fine and costs $22.75; Geo. Wilson, $22.75; Miss Mary Hawkins, $22.75; John J. Cropp et ux to Edgar S. Dean, John E. Beale et ux to L. G. Sutherland, R. C. English et ux to Geo. L. Armstrong.

ATTEMPT TO BAR DALZELL

Election Expense Account Attacked in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, March 11.—John Dalzell, the veteran representative in congress from Pennsylvania, will have to do some explaining before he takes his seat at the extra session April 1. William N. McNair, prominent as a leader of the younger democracy, last December called the attention of the clerk of the house to an alleged irregularity in Dalzell's election expense account.

In Mr. Dalzell's account there are two items which show that he gave $500 to the Republican county committee and "to my treasurer $500." Mr. McNair insists on a more detailed account.
